

Ensuring Safe Data Delivery

Your Exclusive Invitation

The FSA and it's Role in your IT and Information Security

This quarter's CNS Security Chapter is your chance to hear directly from the Financial Services Authority and what they will be looking for from IT and Information Risk departments over the next year.

The intention of the update is to give CNS customers and trusted parties an exclusive insight to recent findings, developments, opinions & techniques from CNS's Security Assessment and Compliance teams. Our experts will talk candidly to you about what they know are key concerns within businesses like yours, and what they see the compliance and regulatory issues to be over the next coming years. CNS will also be offering their thoughts and views on recent IT security news and developments from within the industry.

We invite you to join our Security Chapter and hear how, in a difficult climate, being informed can make the difference!
